

TJ Jann, Class of 2010

TJ Jann, Class of 2010, was a standout two-sport athlete. In only three years of varsity basketball, TJ Jann, left Westford Academy as the 2nd all-time leading scorer with 1,121 points. A scorer that was difficult to stop, he had two 40+ point performances while also finishing near the top in career rebounds.

TJ was recognized as a Dual County All-Star and as the DCL's Co-Most Valuable Player. He was also selected as a Lowell Sun All-Star and Lowell Sun Player of the Year. In his senior year TJ received both Boston Globe and Boston Herald All-Scholastic recognition, one of the few basketball players to receive both honors. TJ was also selected by the Massachusetts Basketball Coaches Association as one of the top players in Eastern Massachusetts.

And how could anyone forget his last high school basketball game, a 43 point and 17 rebound game against Lexington High School, a remarkable performance!

TJ took his academic and athletic talents to Penn State. He is currently a pitcher on the Penn State Baseball Team and is looking forward to the upcoming season.
